OUR FOUNDER

ST. JOHN OF GOD (1495 - 1550)

- 1495 Birth at Montemor-o-Novo in Portugal.
- 1503 Leaves his parents and arrives in Oropesa. Family life in the house of Francisco Cid Mayoral. Works as a shepherd.
- 1523 Joins the army and takes part in the siege of Fuenterrabia. He returns to Oropesa after dishonourable expulsion from the army.
- 1524 Back to Mayoral's family and works as shepherd.
- 1532 Joins again the army to take part in the defence of Vienna against the Turks.
- 1533 Arrival in La Coruna after return from Vienna.
- 1534 Visit to Santiago de Compostela, and to Montemor-o-Novo.
- 1535 Works for a short period in Seville as a shepherd, turns to Gibraltar and sails over to Ceuta.
- 1536 At Ceuta, John takes part in the construction of the fortifications.
- 1537 He also cares for a family fallen into need. Returns to Gibraltar. Starts as a bookseller. Decides to settle in Granada and opens a bookshop there.
- 1538 Returns to Spain; bookseller in Gibraltar.
- 1538 End of the year he turns to Granada and opens a small bookshop.

- 1539 20 January, conversion of John of God after hearing a sermon of the famous preacher St. John of Avila. His unusual behaviour causes people to believe him to be mad and he is being brought to the Royal Hospital.
- 1539 Foundation of the first hospital in the Lucena Street. Hospital care. Collection of alms on the roads, other works of charity. He reaches perfection in charity and poverty.
- 1546 First disciples Antony Martin and Peter Velasco joins.
- 1549 Saves patients from the burning Royal Hospital.
- 1550 8 March, death of John of God.
- 1630 21 September, beatification by Pope Urban VIII.
- 1690 October 16, canonization by Pope Alexander VIII.
- 1886 Pope Leo XIII proclaims St. John of God Patron of all Hospitals and the Sick together with St. Camillus de Lellis.
- 1930 Pope Pius XI extends St. John of God's patronage to include nurses, nursing associations, hospitals and hospital auxiliaries.
